

2011 – 2012 Detention Action Levels and Consequences

FORM: 6
TO BE RETURNED BY ALL STUDENTS

In an effort to teach to high standards of behavioral excellence, Jones College Prep makes a clear connection between behavior and participation. This table also identifies actions on the part of parents / guardians, students, and the school. Families should review this table carefully to help set the student up for success in meeting the school's standards of behavior. Any questions regarding these policies should be directed to the Dean of Students (Dean) at gmmoodv@cps.edu or 773-534-8633.

Action Level	Action Taken/Consequence
	It is the full responsibility of each student to track his/ her own detention(s) as well as other discipline issues. Detention lists will be sent to each Advisory teacher on a weekly basis throughout the school year. The Advisory teacher will share this information with the individual student in their Advisory if the student is on the list. In addition Advisory teachers will be sent a list, by Advisory, with the detention count of each student in their Advisory. Students should check with their Advisory teacher on a weekly basis or check in with the discipline office.
5 pending detentions	Student is placed on the AIL. At this level, the student is not allowed to participate in any activities (i.e. any social activities including, but not limited to, dances, sports activities, club activities, fine arts performances, field trips, senior activities including prom, luncheon, or graduation ceremony) until their detention count is brought to zero by Friday (the Friday BEFORE the week that the event is scheduled).
10 pending detentions	Parent/Student Conference with Dean / designee (on the phone or in person). The student will serve 1 In-School Suspension (ISS) . The first ISS will satisfy 5 detentions. Student remains on AIL until the student's detention count is brought to zero.
Frequent / Continuous AIL Status	Consequences may include In School Suspension and eventually, Out of School Suspension. If the student is frequently on the AIL or maintains AIL status for an extended period of time, a Student Review Hearing with the Administration and parents/guardians will take place to discuss whether Jones College Prep is the optimal educational placement for the student.

A student's pending detention count is the number of detentions earned, minus the number of detentions served on record.

The AIL will be available for teachers every Friday for Monday's reference. If a student is on this list on Monday, they will remain on the list until the following Monday. The reason for this is because the list is created and posted once a week (on Fridays for the following week).
 Example: The big dance is Friday, May 15th. If you want to go, do not get 5 detentions by Friday, May 1st because you will be on the AIL for the next week. If you still want to go to the dance, you have to serve ALL detentions by Friday, May 8th.

EXAMPLE:				Friday, May 1 st AIL is posted today for next week...
Monday, May 4 th AIL in effect for this week...	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday, May 8 th Get off the AIL today for event on 5/15
Monday, May 11 th AIL removed	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday, May 15 th The event you want to go to today

If a student is on the AIL at the deadline of ticket sales for an event, s/he cannot attend and s/he should not purchase a ticket. The student on the AIL should know NOT to purchase a ticket or to submit a permission form.

Students anticipating participation on a trip or an activity must take responsibility for meeting both behavior and academic expectations for the trip or event. Students who are on the AIL, who are vetoed for attendance by any teacher for academic reasons, or who have a current F in a class at any time leading up to the event/field trip will be denied participation and no refunds will be given for any monies submitted.

We have read, fully understand, and agree to abide by the conditions of enrollment and the Student / Parent Handbook as stated here, as written in the full version of the handbook and the CPS Student Code of Conduct.
